RURAL BUSINESS-COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS

RURAL BUSINESS ENTERPRISE GRANT (RBEG) PROGRAM

USDA Rural Development makes grants to finance and facilitate development of small and emerging private business enterprises in rural areas of cities up to 50,000 population with priority to applications for projects in open country, rural communities and towns of 25,000 and smaller, and economically distressed communities. Rural Business Enterprise Grants include grants made to third party lenders to establish revolving loan programs or provide technical assistance. At the State and local levels, the programs are administered by the Rural Development Field offices.

Who is Eligible?

Eligibility is limited to public bodies, private nonprofit corporations and Indian tribes on Federal and State reservations and other federally recognized Indian tribal groups in rural areas. Public bodies include incorporated towns and villages, boroughs, townships, counties, states, authorities, and districts.

How May Funds Be Used?

To facilitate and finance development of: small and emerging private business enterprises by providing technical assistance, establishing small business revolving loan fund, or acquisition of land, buildings, infrastructure to enhance business development, etc.

Limitations Grants Cannot Be Used For:

1. Production of agricultural products through growing, cultivating, and harvesting either directly or through horizontally integrated livestock operations except for commercial nurseries or timber operations.
2. Comprehensive area type planning.
3. Loans by grantees when the rates, terms and charges for those loans are not reasonable.
4. Development of a proposal that may result in the transfer of jobs or business activity from one area to another. This provision does not prohibit establishment of a new branch or subsidiary.

5. Development of a proposal which may result in an increase of goods, materials, commodities, services, or facilities in an area when there is not sufficient demand.

Other Conditions:

Applicants for grants to establish a revolving loan program must include details on the applicant's experience operating a revolving loan program, proposed projects, applicant's financial ability to administer a revolving fund, need for a revolving fund, and other funds available to leverage funds made available under this program.
